Key Benefits

Empower employees with seamless self-service access to essential HR-related information, creating more personalized workplace experiences.

Automate core HR functions, including collecting employee information, reviewing requests, reporting and more, to become more efficient and responsive.
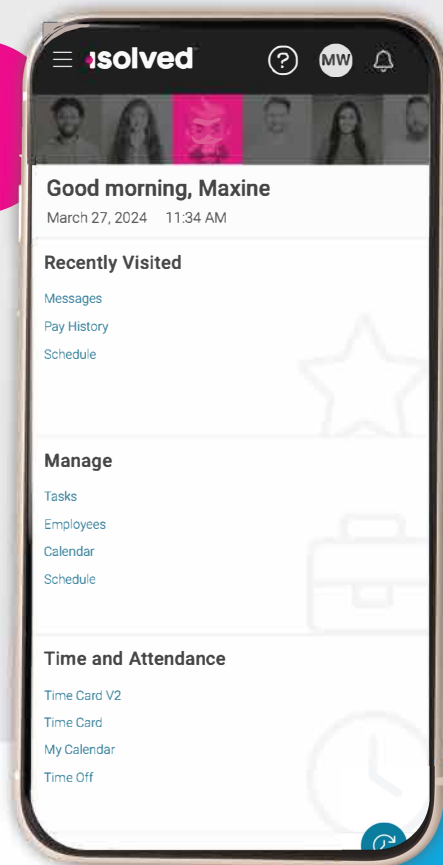

Easily track employee information, such as certifications, job and salary history, and skills, for a complete picture of each employee.

View and manage all employee documents, including OSHA reporting and electronic signature consent, in one place.

Create comprehensive reports and track key analytics to support more data-driven decision making.

Streamline Workflows

Drive more efficient HR processes with one single source of truth for all employee data. Automate workflows to reduce manual input, eliminate the need for multiple HR systems and increase productivity. Ensure compliance and mitigate risk with automatic updates on the latest employment regulations.

Make Data-Driven Decisions

Generate comprehensive reports and track key analytics to access valuable information on your organization. Leverage a centralized view of employee records to gain insight into your workforce and support more data-driven and strategic decision making.

Engage Employees

Empower your employees with a more flexible and personalized experience. It's easy for your people to access their personal information, tax withholding forms and other HR documents, conveniently from their preferred device.
